

National Severe Weather Warning Service

Chief Forecasters Assessment

80-100 mm of rain is possible over the high ground of north Wales. This includes rain that has already fallen on Friday morning. Low lying areas are expected to see much lower rainfall amounts.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 14:50 on Fri, 13th Oct 2017 until 10:00 on Sat, 14th Oct 2017

Persistent rain will continue over north Wales through the rest of Friday and overnight into Saturday morning.

Bus and train services will probably be affected with journey times taking longer. Spray and flooding on roads is also probable. Flooding of a few homes and business is possible.
